

Tobique First Nation – Moving Forward Action Plan 2009 to 2014

Action Item	Description	Requirements	Target Date	Costing	Comments
Shoreline Erosion Project	Jacques Whitford 2000 study is being updated and this study will be used as the basis to develop a Shoreline Erosion Project that will maximize economic benefits to Tobique First Nation. It is meant to be a 5 year project.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Commitment to funding - Phased approach - Maximize TFN workers and resources - Use materials from TFN lands - Ensure project funds are held in trust and accounted for 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Study update to be completed by July 24th - Year 1 work to be planned - July 31st - Work on what can be done in 2009 – Begin work by Aug 15th - Permits acquired by Oct 1/09 	TBD Estimate: Year 1 - $250 k Year 2 - $500 k Year 3 - $500 k Year 4 - $500 k Year 5 - $500 k	Maximize benefits to Tobique First Nation Permitting and approval by Federal departments required
Toxic Dump Site	Commission Jacques Whitford to conduct a study on the dump site Determine if the site is toxic or simply a dump site Seek recommendation on the mitigation of the site Seek a budget for cleanup or mitigation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Request for proposals on a study - Secure funding for study and direct through TFN - Set strict time limits and expected outcomes from the study 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Study outline to be received by July 16th - Prepare ToR for study - Determine how and when to proceed - Commit funds for study 	Estimate Range: $5 to $50k for the study	Federal approvals required prior to commencing an capital works